

NEWARK POLICEMEN ACCUSED OF THEFTS

Fireman Also Involved in Confessions of Alleged Burglars.

PROTECTION CHARGED
One Cop Is Held in $5,000 and Others Are Suspended.

One Newark, N. J., policeman is held in $5,000 bail on a charge of burglary and a policeman and fireman are under suspension in that city following confessions of alleged burglars that they had operated in the Second police precinct under the protection of three members of the police force. The fireman involved was a member of the police force at the time of the operations. Patrolman Godfrey Hohn, following a grilling in headquarters yesterday morning, was arrested and later arraigned before Judge Boettner in the First precinct court. He pleaded not guilty to a charge of burglary and was held in $5,000 bail for action by the Grand Jury. Simultaneously Patrolman Morris Kern, of the Second precinct and Fireman George Gardner of truck company No. 3 were suspended by their respective chiefs. Capt. Frank E. Brea of the Detective Bureau and Acting Chief McDermitt of the Fire Department are authority for the statement that the two men have been implicated in the alleged combination between burglars and police of the Second precinct. Until last April Gardner was a patrolman attached to the Second precinct. Two of the three burglars said to be involved, through their own confessions, with the policemen were arraigned on charges of burglary, specifying the theft of forty-six automobile tires valued at $1,416 from the Broad Tire Company, 334 Broad street, Newark, one of the thefts specified by them in their alleged confessions implicating Hohn and the others. The burglars arraigned and held in $5,000 bail were Louis Iovine, 19, of 72 Orange street, and Ralph Scatelli, 35, Drift street, both of Newark. A third man arrested with these two has not been arraigned. Hohn has been on the Newark police force three and a half years and is married. Two other policemen who have been questioned regarding Iovine's story were not arrested, but their suspension is momentarily expected. Iovine and two other men, George Wachter, who says he has no home, and Ralph Scatelli of 38 Drift street, Newark, have been held on an attempted burglary charge since last Saturday, when the police say that, acting on a tip, they caught them in the act of trying to break into Huff's confectionery store in Orange street. After his arrest Iovine asked to see Capt. Brea and told him his story.

CHARGES PERSECUTION IN SUING MAGISTRATE Lawyer Wants $25,000 From Kochendorfer.

Edward E. Dean, lawyer, of 192 Shelton avenue, Jamaica, began suit yesterday against Magistrate John Kochendorfer for $25,000 damages for alleged false arrest and malicious prosecution. The trouble began last spring, it is said, when Mr. Dean was put out of the Jamaica Town Hall by Patrolman O'Leary after a dispute. He had O'Leary summoned to court and Magistrate Kochendorfer dismissed the charge and had one of disorderly conduct drawn against Dean instead. On this, it is charged, he reserved decision, later finding Dean guilty and suspending sentence without notifying him. Dean got the conviction reversed on appeal to the County Court. In his complaint he characterizes the Magistrate's conduct as "illegal, oppressive, tyrannical, insolent and insulting."

HEAT WAVE HITS KANSAS.
TOPEKA, Aug. 27.—Central Kansas again suffered from a heat wave to-day, Salina reporting an official temperature of 111 degrees. The Weather Bureau reported that yesterday eighteen of the twenty-six reporting stations recorded temperatures of 100 degrees or more.

WIDOW AND SON ARE KILLED BY GAS

Seven Jets Found Open by Police in Home of Emma Ruthnick.

MYSTERY IN TRAGEDY
She Worried Over Money, but Had Bonds and Deposits in Bank.

Mrs. Emma Ruthnick, 61, a widow, of 233 East 112th street, and her son, Albert, 25, were found dead yesterday in their home from gas. The police found seven gas jets open. Mrs. Ruthnick had fallen by the kitchen sink. Her son was dead in bed, apparently having been overcome in his sleep. The police were told that Mrs. Ruthnick had expressed fears lately she did not know how she would get through the winter, as her funds were dwindling, and her son had been out of work for eight months. Last year Mrs. Ruthnick's arm was broken and it has been crippled since, so that she was unable to obtain employment.

What added to the mystery of the deaths was the report of the tenants that Friday a gas man made repairs on a leaking gas pipe in the basement. The gas odor disappeared after that, the tenants said.

The police found bank books showing deposits aggregating $500, and $250 in Liberty bonds in the apartment.

ACTRESS DIES IN HOTEL.
Miss Anna Martin, 27, an actress, died yesterday in the Hotel Vendig, 120 West Forty-seventh street. Death is believed to have been due to natural causes. Her father's name, found in her effects, is James Martin, 4857 Washington Boulevard, Chicago.
